Camp La Junta

2010 Father /Son Weekends

Summer #83 is approaching! And, of course, it wouldn't be complete without our "infamous" weekends for campers, non-campers, alumni-campers, shouldabeen-campers and gunnabe-campers -- for an exciting mini-camp experience. Folks still NEW to camping will get a firsthand try at camp activities, meet folks behind the scenes and get a feel for our approach to kids and camping. Experienced La Junta folks will get a chance to enjoy La Junta and the outdoors in a relaxed, family atmosphere.

IT'S A "GUY THING:" We'd like to keep things limited to our traditionally male population. However, we will not exclude any moms or sisters who want to "rough it" with the guys for a weekend. Ladies should remember our facilities will remain rustic and group oriented, but we'll do our best to make you feel "at home."

Three Weekends: April 17/18, April 24/25 or May 1/2

PURPOSE: For over 15 years we have watched campers and dads enjoying themselves at Father/Son weekend. While initially we thought it would simply be a great way for new campers to learn the lay of the land before their first Camp La Junta experience, we have become firm believers that it is also a great bonding experience. How often these days can a boy and his favorite Role Model spend an entire weekend just hanging out? From the drive out to camp to an afternoon paddling the peaceful Guadalupe, it's just a great time for strengthening relationships and for creating memories.

PROGRAM: Father/son weekends traditionally function with a resort style atmosphere. The only firmly scheduled events each day will be meals. Activities will include riflery, archery, canoeing, kayaking, swimming, tennis, athletics, hiking and horseback. No counselor supervision is provided for most activities (with the exception of riflery, archery and horseback) and families choose when they will try each activity. Your schedule is yours to create. The atmosphere is designed such that a father and son(s) spend the weekend together, creating their own entertainment while getting to know La Junta and it's personnel a little better. * You will be given a schedule for riding (for boys only), riflery and archery when you arrive, so that everyone will have a turn at these La Junta Staff-supervised activities. Commemorative T-Shirts will be given to everyone!

ARRIVE anytime Friday after dinner or Saturday, but please let us know your arrival plans on the application form. Friday evenings do not include dinner, but will have some sort of event starting after dark.

MEALS: Five meals, starting with Saturday's hearty breakfast and finishing with a light Sunday, lunch will be served. Snacks and a campfire will be available on Friday evening for those who arrive before bedtime.

LODGING: We will assign you and at least 2 other families to a cabin, but will consider your special requests for cabinmates. Please indicate any preferences on your registration form.

COST: $200.00 per pair of people plus $25.00 for each additional boy in your group. In typical La Junta fashion, fees are all inclusive. Sorry, we can't make partial allowances or prorations.

Please limit three boys per adult. Boys under 13 only, unless registered for camp.
